FILM TEXT

- A couple may decide to separate. This will have many consequences. In this situation, couples can receive support from mediators, attorneys or other experts.
- Children are in a different position, however, as they cannot get divorced from their parents. Therefore, there is no such thing as ex-parents. Children will always be 50% one parent and 50% the other parent.
- As parents, you want the best for your children.
- You want to make sure that your children suffer as little as possible from the divorce.
- 'Kindbehartigers' exist specifically for children in divorce situations. Their purpose is to listen to children, help explain certain circumstances and verbalise the wishes of each child to its parents. As soon as possible!
- 'Kindbehartigers' also talk to parents.
- We mostly represent a child's voice towards their parents, anyone concerned and if necessary even lawyers. We do this by means of a written report with advice.
- Using our network, we ensure that parents and children are helped quickly.
- Every child has the right to feel safe and confident after a divorce.
